OUR MEMORIES TURN TO THEE.

FOREWORD

It is with eagerness and with reverence that we look through the last edition of the Aquila—the story of our last year at H.V.H.S. told in words and pictures.

It has been said many times that one never forgets his experiences enjoyed in high school. While the student is still in school, he is not usually aware of the time that is swiftly passing by. Years later, while earning the living which school has prepared him for, he fondly remembers his high school days; and, perhaps, he would even like to live them over again.

Truthfully, we can say that no matter where our adult lives may lead us, we will never forget the years spent at Happy Valley; therefore, we pledge ourselves to the expression: "We'll be true to thee, Alma Mater, true to thee 'till old!"

Dedication

WE DEDICATE

To the most outstanding person with whom we were privileged to be associated during our school years, we pay this tribute of grateful recognition to him who has proved himself to be an invaluable asset to our school. It is for his undying faith in Happy Valley High School and for his untiring devotion and interest in the students that we seek to honor MR. CHARLES A. PARLIER, Principal of Happy Valley School, by dedicating to him the 1966 edition of the Aquila.

All those who have known Mr. Parlier as principal of our school and have served under his guidance for four, or perhaps all twelve years, have found him to be a friend, a person of leadership, and one who is certainly deserving of this dedication.

A TRIBUTE TO CHARLES A. PARLIER

To evaluate a person's worth is somewhat difficult to put into words. Mr. Charles A. Parlier has been in school work for a total of thirty-eight years. During this period, he has served well, both as a teacher and as a principal. The greater part of his career has been the principalship of the Happy Valley Schools.

My first association with him was in the early thirties when we were graduate students at the University of North Carolina. We met often on the tennis courts. To know a person well is to know him in play. I remember him as an exemplary sportsman. This quality has carried over into his profession and his work.

Later, we were fellow principals in the schools of Caldwell County. In competitive sports, my pupils often remarked, "We like to play the Happy Valley teams. They are such good sports." This was largely due to the leadership of the principal, Charles A. Parlier.

As superintendent of Caldwell County Schools for twenty-five years, it was my privilege to serve with him. All of this period he was principal of the Happy Valley School with the exception of one year when he ventured into the business world. Being the professional man he is, his love for young people brought him back into the field of education.

Never was there a more loyal fellow worker than Charlie Parlier. I never knew him to shirk a task—large or small. He always responded with a hundred per cent effort and a smile.

One of his many great attributes is his friendly disposition. Many of his former pupils now out in the field of life have stated to me their love and affection for Mr. Parlier. They would always close the discussion of their high school days with remarks about his friendly attitude and his willingness to help his students.

Many times he has called me about problems some of his boys and girls were having in school. He always took his work seriously. His sincerity gave him the respect of his students, his teachers, and patrons of his school. But few principals make for themselves such a long and enviable record of service in their school communities as has Mr. Parlier.

This man has contributed greatly to the teaching profession not only the Happy Valley School community, but also to the Caldwell County School System and to the state of North Carolina. Very few school people ever attain such a long tenure in one school and still retain the love, admiration, respect, and appreciation of so many people.

Charlie Parlier has been truly a great school man. I am glad to have had the opportunity of serving with him for most of his long career in the teaching profession.

C. M. Abernethy

In appreciation

BECAUSE...you have been an inspiration and a friend to each of us, because we all admire and respect you, not only for your teaching ability, but also for your wonderful sense of humor and friendly, winning smile, because you have strived to the utmost to teach us in the classroom and to lead us to victory on the basketball court and the baseball diamond, we dedicate a portion of this page to you, MR. STEVE CRISP, to show our appreciation and to say...THANKS.

all hail to thee our alma mater; our happy Valley high.

Clear the Halls!

Smile, please

Who's Who in the Class of '66

The Aquila Staff of '66 has chosen LINDA EDMISTEN and REX MILLER as Typical Seniors because they are always nice to be near. A good nature and a pleasant personality are their exceptional traits. For these reasons and many more, these students are liked by all.

Eager to participate and very capable of accomplishing whatever they undertake with care are JUDY ELLE R and GARY FORD, Best All Around.

TERESA EDMISTEN and BOYD GREENE, Most Intellectual, meet their studies with an aggressive and scientific approach.

The attractive features that these two are blessed with have won SANDRA BENTLEY, Prettiest, and RONNIE WOODS, Most Handsome, their well-deserved superlative.

With a trail of success behind them, PENNY KENDALL and MILTON YATES, Most Likely to Succeed, are sure to conquer the future.

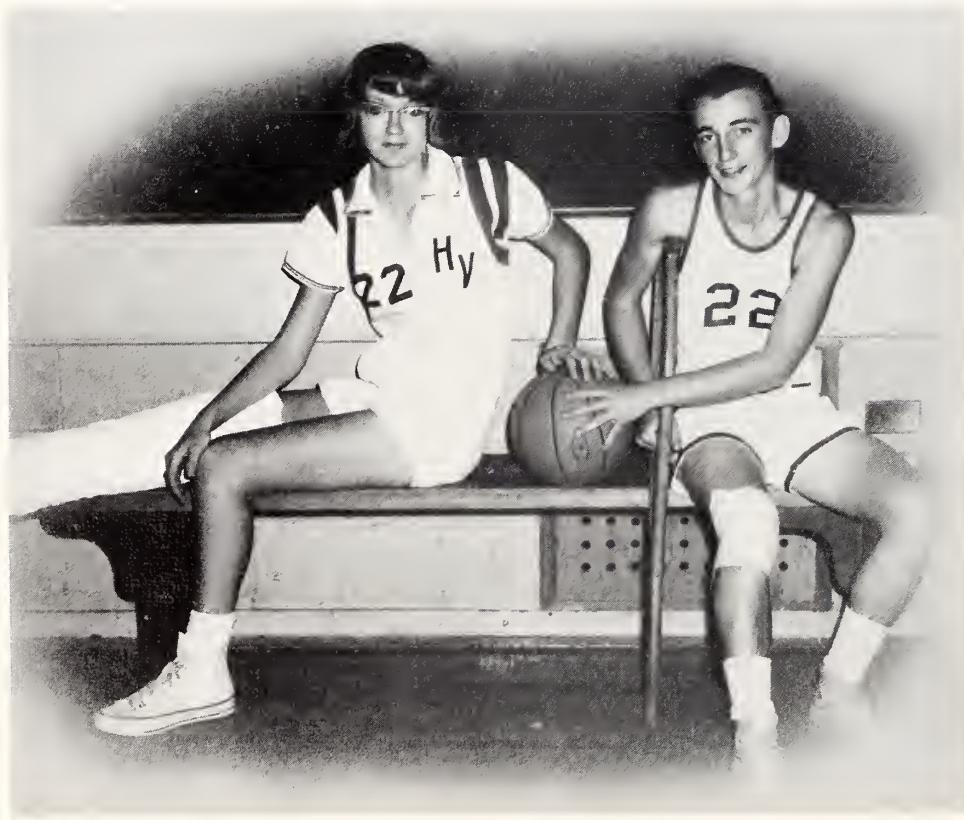

Most Talented are WAYNE BELL and ANN TODD, both of whom excel exceedingly in many fields.

Smiling all the day DORIS STORIE and BLAKE WINKLER, Most Popular, greet each person with a cherry hello.

With a spirit that never tires, DIANNE CRUMP and LANE A D K I N S, Most School Spirit, always support the Eagles.

Always willing to try their hand at any sport, MILDRED SUMMERLIN and ROGER DULA, Most Athletic, excel not only in physical ability but also in the ability to think quickly and maintain good sportsmanship.

There is never a dull moment with EVELYN BUMGARNER and CLYDE CONLEY, Wittiest, who are good sports in taking jokes as well as in making them.

Every day is special, or at least it appears to be when BRENDA HOWELL and MELVIN DAYE, Best Dressed, come to school. They are always attired in neat and attractive clothes.

The accomplishment of maintaining a neat personal appearance goes to VIVIAN WOODS and TONY SCRUGGS, Neatest. A well-groomed boy and girl always compliment the school.

JANICE HARMON and BYRON HOYLE, Most Thoughtful, can always be relied upon to be courteous and helpful at all times.

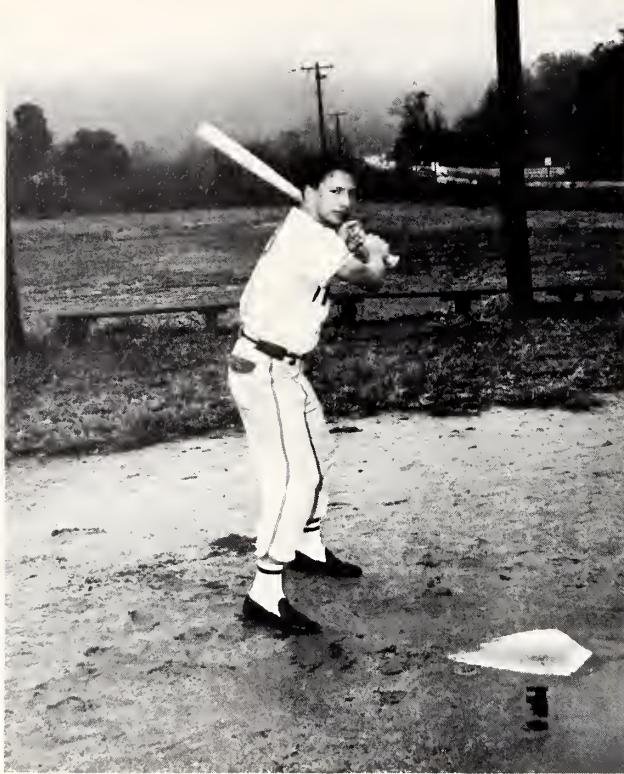

Remember, it's "how" you play the game!

"Ball Hog!"

Bricklaying I-Kneeling; Bricklaying II-Standing; Ray Smith, teacher far-right.

Batter's up!!!

An apple a day will keep the doctor away!

Ode to the faculty

THERE'S A SCHOOL CALLED HAPPY VALLEY
NESTLED 'NEATH THE MOUNTAINS CREST
AND THE TEACHERS ON THIS FACULTY
ARE THE FINEST AND THE BEST.

THERE'S MISS STEELE AND "LOFTY" NORMA
LIKE OLD WOMEN IN THE SHOE
HAVE SO MANY TOTS WHO LOVE THEM
THEY REALLY DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO.

THE MISSES PERRY FROM WATAUGA
ARE JUST FULL OF JOKES AND FUN
AND WITH ALL THEIR WOODEN PADDLES
KEEP ORDER AS SHOULD BE DONE.

THE TWO WHITES-MARTHA AND ME
ARE VERY DIFFERENT AS YOU'LL AGREE
SHE'S SO PRETTY, SMART AND ALL THAT AND I'M JUST OLD AND UGLY AND FAT.

WE GOT A GRAND TEACHER, I THINK
WHEN THE FOURTH GRADE GOT ESTELLE LINK
AND MRS. SWIFT, OUR ONLY ATHLETE
AS TEACHER AND COACH IS HARD TO BEAT.

THEN YOU ALL KNOW PANSY MOORE
SHE'S THE ONE IN THE 7TH THEY ALL ADORE
AND THERE'S THE ONE SO DEPENDABLE AND KIND
YOU KNOW IT'S SARAH I HAVE IN MIND.

HERE'S MRS. STEELE WITH HER QUIET MANNER
ALWAYS GREEDY FOR THAT PTA BANNER
AND MRS. DEASON WHO CAME IN LATE
BUT WAS PRIZE TOSSED US BY FATE.

MRS. CURTIS IN THE LIBRARY DATES THE BOOKS
WHILE MARY'S THE ONE WHO SERVES AND COOKS
AND MRS. ABBY, INTELLECTUAL THO' SMALL
GIVES LEARNING' TO SENIOR AND GRADUATES THEM ALL.

MISS WINECOFF TEACHES DOWN IN THE THIRD
AND IS A FINE TEACHER I GIVE YOU MY WORD,
HERE'S A RUMOR THO' THAT SHE MAY BOLT
THE MAN'S NAME? COULD BE ADDERHOLT.

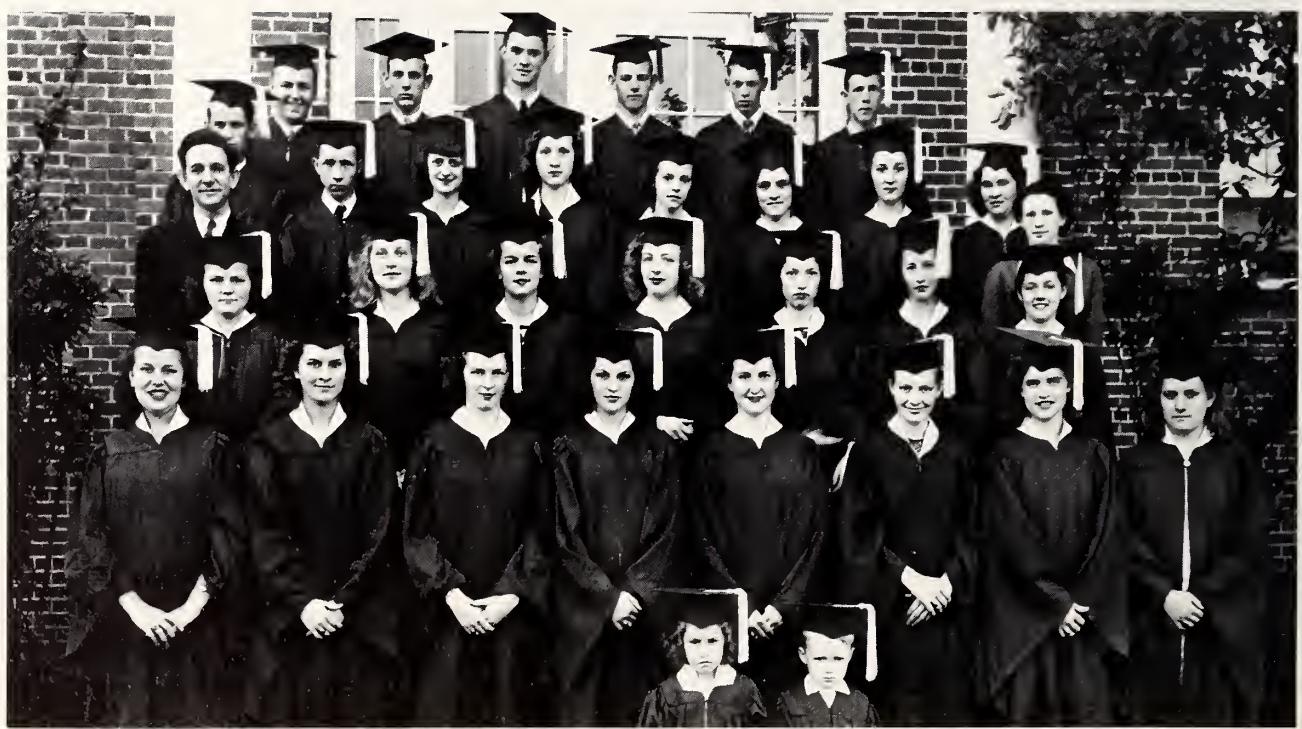

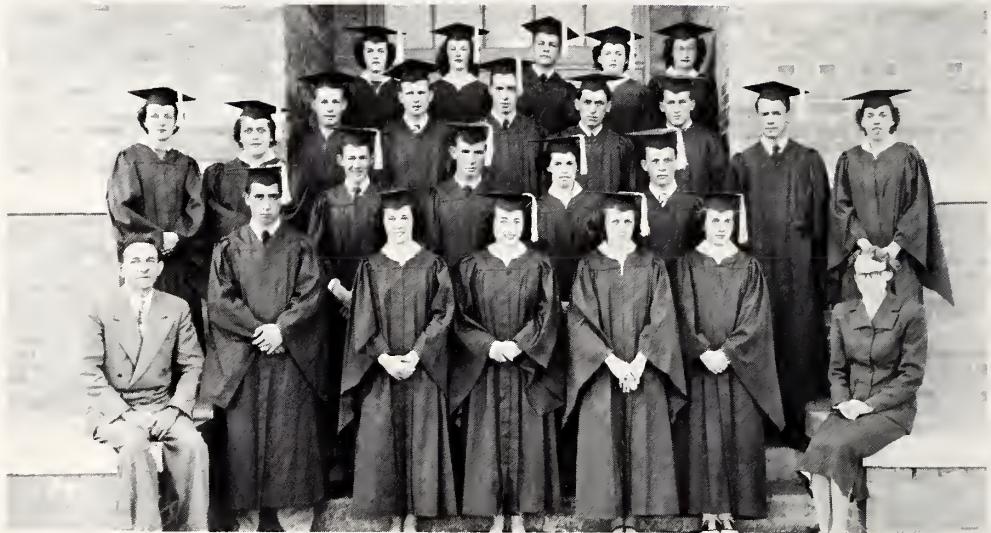

THEN THERE'S STAFFORD WHO WEARS HIS HAT
AND LIKES HIS WOMEN SHORT AND FAT,
AND MR. GREENE WHO CAN NEVER BE FOUND
HAS HOUSED IN ON THE SCHOOL YARD GROUND.

YOU CAN SEARCH IN THE NORTH OR EAST OR WEST
BUT OURS IS THE PRINCIPAL FINEST AND BEST
AND MRS. PARLIER IS JUST AS GREAT
SHE KEEPS CHARLIE HAPPY AND UP TO DATE.
